TYPE SPECIMEN BOOKS.

EXHIBITION AT FIRST EDITION CLUB.

FROM A CORRESPONDENT.

The increased attention now being paid to type-specimen books in America and elsewhere is reflected in the exhibition now being held by the First Edition Club, which continues until June 30. It is undoubtedly a matter for satisfaction that this, the first and most representative collection yet assembled, should be held in this country. Type-specimen books are catalogues which were issued by type-founders to their customers, the printers. These interesting typographical by-products are now excessively rare and of great historic interest. The earliest typefounders were printers also, but the two crafts quickly became specialized, and from the 15th century onwards the type-

Our Father, which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our treſpaſſes, as we forgive them that treſpaſs againſt us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.
